Project Award – NSW Department of Justice

Fleetwood has received a letter of award from the New South Wales Department of Justice for the supply of new educational program buildings. The buildings will be installed at various custodial centres, and will provide new inmate program delivery spaces and associated staff accommodation.

The contract has a value of $8.7m with construction and delivery scheduled to occur over the next four months.

The contract represents an important step in the company's progression into new markets.

The company has also recently established a manufacturing facility in New South Wales, and this is expected to open new opportunities, particularly in the government and affordable housing sectors.

For further enquiries please contact Brad Denison, Managing Director, or Yanya O'Hara, Company Secretary on 08 9323 3300.
